About this collection

Description:

Collection of images and textual materials from disparate sources related to the history of Kingsley, Michigan. The collection creator, Brenda Wolfram Moore, was a genealogist and once worked with a committee to construct a permanent home for local history in the community. That effort was unsuccessful, and Moore gifted the materials she collected to the Kingsley Branch Library so they would be accessible to the public, as the materials were not related to her family lines.

Dates:

1900-1970

Extent:

.25 linear feet

Scope and content:

Collection consists of 39 photographs, a mix of black-and-white and color, with dates ranging from 1900-1970. Covers a wide variety of subjects, from persons related to local schools to buildings.
