

Amerikán Národní Kalendář 1913, vol. 36

PHYSICAL OBJECT

IDENTIFIER

2025.69.04

ALTERNATE TITLE

American National Calendar 1913

DATE

1913

PUBLISHER

August Geringer

DESCRIPTION

The Amerikán Národní Kalendář was a periodical first published in 1878 by August Geringer. Published yearly, the publication was often read by Czech-Americans for entertainment, calendars such as this one often replaced books for Czech immigrants and influenced their cultural life. The Amerikán Národní Kalendář includes a calendar for the year 1913, helpful resources (measurements, nutrients of vegetables) advertisements for czech businesses (mostly in Chicago, Illinois), short stories, poems, illustrations, recipes, candidates for the presidency and vice-presidency (with illustrations), Laws in the northwestern states on hunting and fishing.

LANGUAGES

Czech

MEDIA CAPTION

Front cover of Amerikán Národní Kalendář 1913, vol. 36.
Front cover of Amerikán Národní Kalendář 1913, vol. 36.